No. 974.

Dy Commissr's Office
Dysart District
Dated Dysart 22d Sept 1879.

To

The Revenue Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of Dysart -

Sir,

The question has arisen whether the late Toddy Contractors, Messrs. Brown and Ruthnall, are entitled to a remission on payments to Inamdars at the same rate as the remission granted them by Government on their late Contract. The late Contractors consider they are entitled to it and request me to issue orders to all Inamdars to that effect, while several Inamdars have petitioned me for orders for full payment by the Contractors. The rate to Inamdars was formerly raised or governed by the Government Contract amount hence it appears to me that when reduced it affects all generally, but before issuing any orders I have the honor to request instructions as to the intention of Government in the matter.
